Naples, August 1.

THE Corpse of our late Viceroy Count Gallas having been embalmed, and for three Days together exposed to publick View in the Hall of the Palace called the Duke d' Alba's Hall, it was on the 28th past carried in Solemnity, attended by the Nobility in Civil or Military Employments, and by the Officers and Servants of the Houshold of the deceased, to the Church of the Carmelites, and interred there. The next Day the Funeral Service was performed in the same Church, at which the Ministers, and the Members of the several Councils, with other Persons of Distinction, assisted, Father Caraccioli preaching the Funeral Sermon. The Collateral Council have taken upon them the Government of the Kingdom till the Arrival of a new Viceroy, and meet every Day at the Palace for the Dispatch of publick Affairs.

Copenhagen, Aug. 19. 'By the last Mail from 'Norway we have Advice, that Rear-Admiral Tor'denschiold has attacked Elfsburg, but met not 'with the same Success as before Malstrand. He 'cannonaded and bombarded the said Fort, but not 'having a sufficient Number of Forces for venturing upon an Assault, he resolved to retire, after 'having lost 60 Men, among whom is Captain 'Raab. On the 17th, a British Man of War arrived in our Road, which is soon to be followed 'by three more, to reinforce the Squadron under 'the Command of Admiral Norris. It is said 'Rear-Admiral Paulsen has received Orders from 'the King to join the British Admiral with all the 'Men of War we have in the Baltick. This and 'the King's sudden Return from Norway to Fredericksburg gives Occasion to divers Conjectures.

DUBLIN.

Votes of the House of Commons of Ireland.

Friday, Aug. 7. Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill, For Quieting and Establishing Corporations, and for freeing and discharging all Persons in Employments from the Penalties they may have incurred by not qualifying themselves, pursuant to the Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery, and for limitting the Time for Prosecutions upon the said Act; and that Mr. Chancellour of the Exchequer, Mr. Agmondisham Vesey, Mr. Attorney-General, Mr. Sollicitor-General, Mr. Ward, Mr. Marlay, and Mr. Rose, do prepare and bring in the same.

Monday, Aug. 10. Mr. Trotter, according to Order, reported from the Committee of the whole House to whom Heads of a Bill, For securing the Protestant Interest of this Kingdom, by further amending the several Acts of Parliament made to prevent the further Growth of Popery, were committed, That they had gone through the same Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereto with some Amendments, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the same were again read, and agreed unto by the House with some further Amendments.

Ordered, That Mr. Trotter do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the said Heads of a Bill, and desire the same may be transmitted into Great-Britain in due Form.

Mr. Secretary Webster informed the House, That he was commanded by his Grace the Lord Lieutenant to acquaint the House, That His Majesty had been pleased to return a most Gracious Answer to the Address of this House, which he read in his Place, and after delivered at the Table, and the same was again read by Mr. Speaker, and is as followeth:

GEORGE R.

HIS Majesty has received with great Satisfaction the Address of His Faithful Commons, for His Majesty's hearty Thanks.

His Majesty is glad to find them sensible of the Danger of the Established Church of Ireland, from the great Number of Papists, and other Disaffected Persons, hoping this Consideration will engage them to enter upon such Methods as may make the Protestant Dissenters not only more Easie, but also more Useful to the Support of the Constitution both in Church and State, and will prove a great Addition of Strength to the Protestant Interest.

His Majesty thanks the House for their Assurances of granting such Supplies as may support His Government with Honour, which shall be laid out in such Manner as shall appear to be most Advantagious to a People whose Fidelity and Obedience have so justly recommended them to His Majesty's peculiar Care. G. R.

Ordered, That His Majesty's most Gracious Answer be entered in the Journal of this House.

Ordered, That a Committee be appointed to draw up an Address of Thanks to His Majesty, for His Majesty's most Gracious Answer to the Address of this House.

And a Committee was appointed accordingly.

Wednesday, Aug. 12. Mr. Speaker reported, that this House attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant Yesterday at the Castle, with the Address of Thanks of this House, which Address is as follows:

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses in Parliament assembled.

Most gracious Soverreign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, beg Leave humbly to return our most sincere and hearty Thanks for your Majesty's most gracious Answer to our Address.

We are truly sensible, that the Peace and Happiness we now enjoy, and the Preservation of our Constitution in Church and State, are (under God) wholly owing to your Majesty; which inestimable Blessings we will endeavour to preserve by heartily promoting a firm Union among all your Majesty's Protestant Subjects in your Majesty's Defence against your Enemies.

As we esteem your Majesty's peculiar Care of us our greatest Happiness and Support, so we shall always study to deserve it, by the most profound Respect and Duty to your Majesty, and by chearfully giving the necessary Supplies for the Support of your Government, which we are assured from your Majesty's Goodness, will be laid out in such Manner as shall be most advantageous to us.

And that thereupon his Grace was pleased to return the Answer following,

I Will take Care to lay this Address before his Majesty by the first Opportunity.

Ordered, That his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Answer be entered in the Journal of this House.

Mr. Ward, according to Order, reported from the Committee of the whole House, to whom Heads of a Bill, For explaining and amending an Act, entituled, An Act for the Preservation of the Inheritance, Rights, and Profits of Lands belonging to the Church and Persons Ecclesiastical, were committed; that they had gone through the same Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereto with some Amendment, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the same were again read, and agreed unto by the House.

And a Clause being offered to be added to the said Heads of a Bill, the same was also read, and agreed unto by the House.

Another Clause being offered to be added to the said Heads of a Bill, the same was read and agreed unto by the House.

Ordered, That Mr. Ward do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the said Heads of a Bill, and desire the same may be transmitted into Great Britain in due Form.

Mr. Trotter reported from the Committee of the whole House, to whom Heads of a Bill, For the more effectual preventing Marriages of Infants against gainst the Wills of their Parents or Guardians, were committed; that they had gone through the same Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereto with some Amendments, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the same were again read, and agreed unto by the House.

Ordered, That Mr. Trotter do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the said Heads of a Bill, and desire the same may be transmitted into Great Britain in due Form.

Mr. Secretary Webster informed the House, that he was commanded by his Grace the Lord Lieutenant to acquaint the House, that it is his Grace's Pleasure, that this House do adjourn itself to Thursday the 10th Day of September next.

And the Question of Adjournment being put.

Resolved, That this House do adjourn itself to Thursday the 10th Day of September next.

The Receivers of the two Lotteries for 500,000 l. each, give Notice, That the Tickets are ready to be delivered out at the Bank of England. And whereas the Commissioners for drawing the said Lotteries have finished the Rolling up of the Tickets, and the Time for drawing is near at Hand, the Proprietors in the said Lotteries are desired forthwith to take out the said Tickets, for that after the Drawing is begun, the Tickets remaining with the Receivers will be sealed up, and not delivered out till the Drawing of the said Lottery is completed.

This is to give Notice, that the County Troop of Horse Militia of the County of Middlesex, will be reviewed and mustered on Tuesday and Wednesday next, at Turnham-Green, near Brentford.

These are to give Notice to all Gentlemen and others charged to the Westminster Troop of Horse Militia, that they are to parade, mounted on an able black or brown Horse, in the Accoutrements directed in their Tickets, with Laced Hats, in Great Lincolns-Inn Fields, by Seven in the Morning, on Wednesday the 2d of September next: And all Persons concerned are desired to give speedy Notice to Mr. James Cuningham, Clerk of the Troop, in St. Clement's-Lane, Clare-market, what Care will be taken for performing the said Duty. N. B. Such Riders as shall not appear well mounted, with good Arms, Broad Swords, and good Accoutrements, will be rejected.

Whereas several Persons have deposited 50,000 l. in the Hands of Messieurs Thomas and James Martin, Goldsmiths, in Lombard-street, in order to advance the said Sum on Tickets to be drawn in the two Lotteries for 500,000 l. each: This is to give Notice, That whoever will bring One Hundred Tickets in any one of the said Lotteries to the said Thomas and James Martin, shall receive 200 l. on the delivery of the said Tickets, which Tickets shall be sealed up, and a Receipt or Note given under the Hands of the said Thomas and James Martin, that in Case the said Tickets prove fortunate, they will return back the same 100 Tickets, on the Payment of 300 l. if the same be demanded in one Month after the drawing is over, but if they prove unfortunate and are not demanded, they are to belong to the said Thomas and James Martin.

Mess. Turner and Marke in Exchange-Alley, propose to insure Tickets in either of the Lotteries for 500,000 l. on the following Terms, viz. For 1 l. 2 s. 6 d. per Ticket, to be paid to them in Hand for any Number of Tickets not less than 50 in any one of the said Lotteries, they will undertake to pay 3 l. per Ticket for the whole of the said 50 Tickets; or for 1 l. 5 s. per Ticket, to be paid to them for any Number of Tickets not less than 25 such Tickets, they will undertake to pay 3 l. per Ticket for all the said 25 Tickets, so as such insured Tickets be tendered to them at any Time before the End of a Month after drawing of the said Lotteries.

The Court of Assistants of the Mines Royal, the Mineral and Battery-Works, having thought it not safe for them to hazard any of their Stock of 1,152,000 l. to make good any Part of the Losses that may happen to the Adventurers in the Government Lotteries, the said Stock being raised as a Security to make good to the Merchants their Losses at Sea. On Monday next, the 24th Instant, a Subscription will be opened at Mercer's Hall, for raising the Sum of 120,000 l. as a Joynt Stock or Fund, for insuring the Proprietors of the Tickets in the Lotteries of the Government. N. B. This Stock being only liable to make good the Losses to the Adventurers in the Lotteries as aforesaid, the Money deposited (with the Profits) will be divided among the Subscribers, as soon as all Claims are adjusted, and Money reserved to answer them. Attendance will be given from 10 in the Morning till 1 in the Afternoon, and from 3 to 6 in the Evening, to take the Subscriptions, and to receive 10 per Cent. thereon; the Money so paid in being to be lodged in the Bank of England.
